Company description

The brand finum revolves around tea and coffee, the products are all about tea and coffee, about tea culture in our modern times, that means also about life style. finum is absolutely unique. These types of product cannot be found from any other brand or manufacturer. In the market segments where we are found, and these are sometimes very small niches, we are always the leader. Our paper filters are made from a biodegradable and tasteless material that we co-developed ourselves. Developing this material cost us a lot of time and money and with our machines is exceedingly good to handle. Here we don't delegate product development to others, we do it ourselves. We work here with the competence that our German location offers. This gives us a large advantage over competitors in the international market place. Quality is mandatory to us. We have co-developed some of our raw materials and have implemented procedures that ensure a quality that is most likely not possible in many other place...

We offer: Home, Office and Decoration: Food Funnels - Serving / Eating / Drinking Tableware - Sieves
/ Strainers / Colanders
