Описание компании

Westhof Bio-Gemüse GmbH & Co. KG is your reliable partner in the trade of fresh organic vegetables from sustainable farming. Under the management of Rainer Carstens, the Westhof in Friedrichsgabekoog, Schleswig-Holstein, is dedicated exclusively to the production, packaging, and marketing of organic vegetables – with a clear focus on quality, regional sourcing, and transparency. The Westhof has been family-owned for over 40 years and is firmly committed to organic agriculture. As early as 1989, the farm was converted to Bioland standards – a bold and forward-thinking move toward a more sustainable future. In 1992, the Bioland Schleswig-Holstein marketing cooperative was founded in Neumünster, bringing together organic producers to market vegetables grown under strict organic controls. Today, around 3,000 hectares in the region are cultivated according to organic principles. Approximately 1,200 hectares are managed by the WESTHOF BIO Group and its associated company, Dörscher & Carstens Bio GbR, a...
